sausage and prima.

Room 8 news !

This week we've been doing opposite week ! Which means the students have been teachers and the ES Staff have been the students .

This is a great way for students to communicate what's coming up for the day and helps them to learn how to ask questions .

Leo liked being able to tell the ES staff what to do he said that was fun .

Zeerus said he enjoyed doing who was here and away . A lot of people are away he said .

Friendship Group

We had a lovely friendship group today. It was nice to see some new faces join in the activities. We made some interesting wooden spoon characters.

Words from the Office

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had a lovely week here at school. The students are all working hard in their classes.

PARENT OPINION SURVEY

This week we will be sending home our annual parent opinion survey. It is really important that they are filled out and returned asap as the school uses the data to inform change in the school.

PARENTS AND FRIENDS

If any parents/carers/grandparents can spare a few hours once a month, the parents and friends club would love to have you onboard. Please contact the office if you are interested.

MOBILE PHONES

Wherever possible if students can leave their mobile phone at home that would be appreciated. If students need to be contacted during the school day it can be done through the office.

STAFFING FOR 2023

We are currently working on our staffing for next year which directly correlated with student enrolments. If any families are intending on leaving our school, it would be appreciated if you inform the office so we do not include students who will not be here for 2023.

BUS TRAVELLERS

Just a reminder that travelling to school on the buses is a privilege and if students are not acting in the expected way they will lose their seat. Over the past few weeks we have been experiencing a significant amount of disrespect, swearing and taunting on some of the buses. If families could please remind their child of this.

BASS COAST SPECIALIST SCHOOL CONCERT

Bass Coast Specialist School have their annual concert at the Wonthaggi Union Arts Centre on Thursday September at 11am. Bookings can be made through the school office—56724474.

SWINGS

We have new swings in the paddock. Thank you to South Gippsland Shire and Rotary for their donation towards the swings.
