Words From The Office

Dear Parents /Carers,

Another week down, not long to go.

CHRISTMAS RAFFLE

Parents and Friends are urgently asking for families to donate something for our annual Christmas raffle. A box is located in the front Office.

NATIONAL CHAPLAINCY PROGRAM

The school has been successful in getting three years of funding for employing an extra student welfare officer for three days a week. This will support the great work that the welfare team are already doing across the school supporting students and their families.

GRAND RIDGE RIDE

Next week students from Room 3,7,9,10 will be riding in the Annual Inter Special School Grand Ridge Ride. We will finally be able to use our brand new bike trailer that was funded by a TAC grant. It is a great asset to the school.

GRADUATION

We are all looking forward to a wonderful afternoon of celebration at the Djinta Djinta Winery on Friday December 8th. We will be saying goodbye to Saxon, Jayden, Daniel, Grace, Thomas and Jasmine.

KOORIE EDUCATION SUPPORT OFFICER

We say hello to Rachel Carter who is one of the inner Gippsland KESO's. She is coming in to the school on a fortnightly basis to hang with the students and to work with the teachers to develop our indigenous curriculum. We look forward to her fortnightly visits.
